On 8-21-25 we had an employee by the name of Ms. D. Gray found to have an expired TAP card who was actively serving alcohol in violation of the rules set forth by the ABC board. Since then we have implemented a strict policy of verifying current TAP cards and making sure that employees who do not hold up to date cards are not allowed to serve alcohol. We as owners, strive to maintain the highest standards, not only for our food, but for the compliance to the rules and laws set in place for serving alcoholic beverages. The owners as well as the bar managers will further be monitoring and enforcing much tighter standards to ensure that all employees on the waitstaff hold current TAP cards, and those who do not will be kept from serving alcohol until they do.
