SUMMARY STATEMENT:

This report apprises Council of the status of property tax delinquencies and the related foreclosure procedures.

- Initiated Foreclosures: 2010-2012
  - See attachment: 2010-2012 Updated Delinquencies
  - Seven distinct properties; total delinquent amount $71K
  - These delinquencies are filed with the Third Judicial District Court, and are awaiting the filing of a “motion and memorandum for transfer and entry of judgment of foreclosure”, following Finance staff verification of delinquent amounts.
  - Next steps in filing are estimated to be concluded by end of March, 2019. Staff has delayed this filing pending review of data following ransomware, software updates, and staff turnover.

- Next delinquency/foreclosure filing: 2013-2018
  - Estimated 174 properties totaling $474K in delinquent taxes
  - Staff anticipates initial filings by end of May, 2019.
  - Initial motions and pre-publication notices typically clear 70% to 90% of delinquent balances.
  - Staff will provide Council with a detailed list following, or concurrent with, formal publication of same.
- Timeline for regular annual foreclosure process
  - Staff will initiate regular, annual filings in November, 30 days following final due-date for payment (October 15), beginning in 2019.
  - Staff anticipates $5K to $8K in annual legal fees for regular foreclosure proceedings. Services are provided by Levesque Law Group, and are billed to Finance Department, professional services.
